Mrs naughton

The early birds. I like the fact its earlier drop off from 730am. Helps around work. Plus gets child into school and ready for rhe fay worth a great choice of activities and breakfast.

My daughter likes attending so im happy with all aspects of the clubs.

The older children look after the younger children

Staff amazing, so welcoming with great activities for children, variety food offered encouraging independence with buttering own toast etc. Really great!

That it exists

Going outside. The flexibility to fit in with my work hours

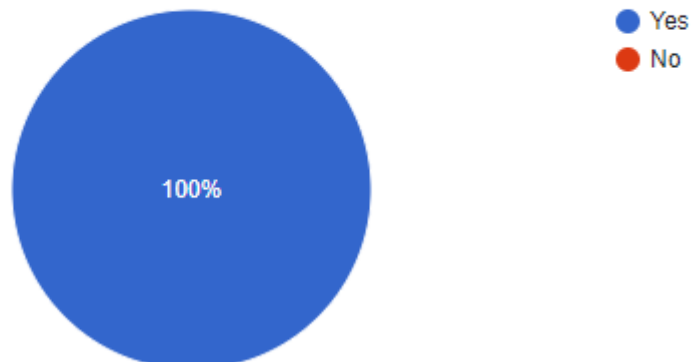

Well priced and it means I can get to work on time, Emma enjoys going to early birds

Not sure I do

An all in one place where i know my daugjter is safe, comfortable and developing.

How can we make Early Birds / Busy Bees Club even better?<sup>8</sup>

responses

Nothing . Works very well .

All good

Maybe some outside play in the morning in good weather

On sunny and dry days to have more outside time

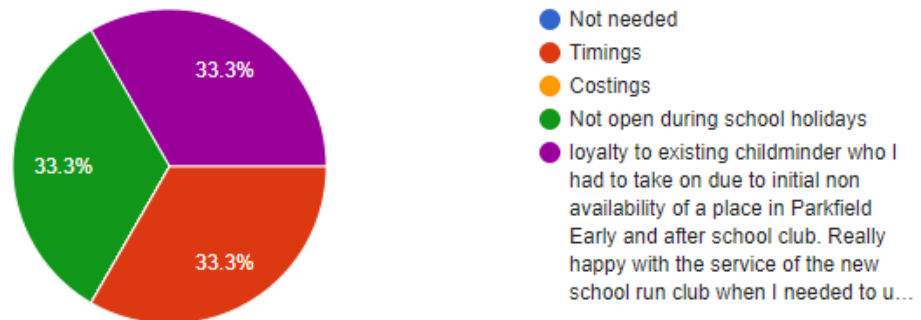

More planned games

More outside games

Exploring briefly important life lessons IE money handling, relaxation techniques, emotional intelligence, not a lesson as such but planting some seeds and ideas. Thank you very happy.
