What do you like most about Parkfield Primary School?

- How friendly the staff are
- The way they treat all the children like a big family
- Small school where everyone knows each other
- the teachers are very helpful and my child is very happy in school
- The whole ethos
- friendliness, teachers, trips
- Treated nice and fairly
- Lots of support from class teacher and teacher assistant
- most of the staff are extremely welcoming
- that its still a one form entry & all staff know all the children by name
- friendly and helpful staff
- the friendly staff and how everybody is like family
- My son says, going on top table and playtimes/luchtimes because they are fun.
- It's like a family
- Select teachers and their teaching styles

- size,location
- it's a small school and friendly
- small and personal
- we like that the school includes parents and provides opportunities to come into school to learn alongside your child
- its close by, some of the teachers are good
- staff
- sense of community reinforced by things like 'playground pal'

- the school ethos and morals
- Mrs Acil ,Mr Barnes ,Mr Haughton and Miss Naughton.
- great sense of community within the school
- how she is gaining confidence in her school work
- My son likes learning because everyone needs to learn
- small school and everyone knows each other
- excellent staff
- friendly helpful staff
- my child's progression
- my child likes going to school.
- that my daughter enjoys her time at school
- friendly approachable staff
- the staff throughout. especially 1-2-1 support. we have found the communication invaluable.
- the school council
- learning and teachers
- Community & Family feel
- friendly welcoming, a lot of care and great school in every aspect.
- communication with parents.
- staff and children work together to achieve good outcomes
- Links. with the parents, teachers are excellent.
- friendly atmosphere
- Atmosphere and communication
- Everything
- feeling of being cared for, how happy my son is here.
- friendly and responsive
- my child has lots of friends and enjoys going to school
- My daughter enjoys school and is learning at a good pace.
- The Parkfield team 'get it right' in my opinion. I am impressed by all the teachers and other staff we have met. They have inspired our children to enjoy learning and helped them both develop the skills to have the thirst to learn independently. Both our children enjoy and value school. Keep it up!
- Most of the staff are very polite and kind
- The ethos and care for children's wellbeing.
- Love the facts parents/carers are invited in on regular basis to spend time with children in class
